LOOK BEYOND—Exploring deeper meaning of liturgical signs and symbols.

THE CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS

We not just trying make the church “look pretty!” Our decorations try to symbolize and make manifest the connection between heaven and earth that we celebrate at Christmas: angels that herald “tidings of great joy;” evergreen trees—symbols of life that direct our gaze toward the heavens; stars, and star-like poinsettias and lights which speak to us of Christ who is with us always, shining forth in the darkest corners of our lives.

For reflection:

How do the symbols of Christmas and the elements of the Christmas liturgies speak to me of my faith?

Forty Hour Eucharistic Devotion in Honor of the Year of Mercy

This Friday is the start of our second Eucharistic Devotion, something our parish conducted as part of the 75th Anniversary of the Parish last year. Not 75 hours, but 40 hours of Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will start this Friday, January 15 at 6:30 p.m. From this time until the 10:30 Mass on Sunday, January 17, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed continuously. The time will be enhanced by music, prayer services, talks, and much needed silence.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available at several points, childcare will be available on Saturday from 9 -11 a.m. and on Saturday from 6-7 p.m. a "Family Holy Hour" will take place. There are many other unique and meaningful moments of prayer during this time! See the full schedule at christkingparish.org or the flyers at the exits of the church.

Last year this was a tremendously graced experience and I know that will be the case as well. Commit to covering some of this time and be present to our Lord present in the Blessed Sacrament. This is a great way to be present in this Year of Mercy through the mercy of Jesus with us in the Blessed Sacrament.

Thanks

A quick note on behalf of Fr. Dennis, Deacon John, myself, and the parish staff for your very generous gestures this Christmas season. The cards, gifts, and baked goods for us were always received with great excitement and much appreciated. The kindness you often show, such as during the holiday season, really helps us in our ministry.

As for me, this summer I will be at Christ King three years and, at the New Year, I feel a deep sense of gratitude I am able to be the pastor here. Daily I grow in love with each of you and am lucky to be part of this family, with its joys and challenges. The priesthood is a tremendous blessing but it is so much easier thanks to your support and acts of kindness. The day I received this assignment I felt tremendously blessed and that feeling only grows as time passes. Thanks for the support of our parish and for myself, Fr. Dennis, Deacon John, and the parish staff.

See you at Mass,

Fr. Phillip

Baptism of the Lord

The old African-American spiritual "Michael Row the Boat Ashore" has one verse that goes, "Jordan's river is chilly and cold / hallelujah / chills the body but not the soul / hallelujah." We don't know what the temperature of the Jordan River was when Jesus stepped into it in front of John the Baptist. But Luke's Gospel relates that after he had been baptized and while he was praying the heavens opened up and the Holy Spirit descended upon him. A voice from heaven was heard, saying, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

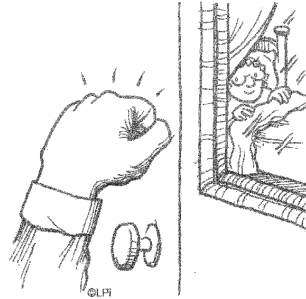

It is unlikely that any such explicitly miraculous events occurred at our own baptism, or any that we may have attended. But something just as momentous did take place when we were baptized. In our baptism we became intimately connected to God; we became God's own children, just as Jesus is the Father's beloved Son. And when we were baptized the Holy Spirit descended upon us—not as a dove, but as the Spirit of God that always dwells in our hearts. That connectedness to God never disappears. Even when we are guilty of the worst sins, God is with us. We believe that the Holy Spirit dwells in us, helping us to act more and more like Christ as we reaffirm our baptismal commitment.

While we celebrate the signs and wonders at the Jordan that herald Jesus' baptism and the beginning of his public ministry, we also recall that our own baptism begins the call to minister in this world. Our baptismal call is to act like Christ, to be his hands, and voice, and heart in this world. When we act like him, we can be assured we too will hear the Father's voice, "with you I am well pleased."

We Make House Calls

We'd be happy to do so. There are a number of parishioners who are active Eucharistic Ministers to the sick and homebound. They would like to make a visit to chat, pray and bring communion. If you or a family member or neighbor would like to arrange for a house call, please call the Rectory at 258-2604.

We Welcome New Members

Have you thought about joining CK but were unsure where to start? Are you looking to become a part of a community where you are welcome to join just as you are? Whether you've visited with us once or more than once, you are invited to sign up as a parishioner after each Mass. Look for a Parish Ambassador wearing a yellow lanyard who can direct you to the Parish Center where an Ambassador will be there to enroll you and help you start your faith journey. We are waiting for you!

You can also find registration information at christkingparish.org or you can visit the parish office for a complete packet of information.
