National Marriage Week Feb. 7—14

During National Marriage Week, parishes are encouraged to promote Friday, February 9th as a day of prayer and sacrifice for this intention: "May all married couples be strengthened in their call to reflect the love of the Trinity." More about the Call to Prayer is available at www.usccb.org/pray.

The USCCB websites, For Your Marriage, Por Tu Matrimonio, and Marriage: Unique for a Reason have many resources for engaged and married couples, as well as those who would like to promote and support marriage. We hope that these resources may be of assistance to you.

Hunger Task Force Volunteer Opportunity

The Parish Collaborative is sponsoring a volunteer event on Saturday March 4, 2017 from 9:00 AM to 12:00 Noon.

Building Senior Stockboxes is a fun, fast paced, team building activity.

The boxes you will be building are nutritious boxes of food that Hunger Task Force then delivers to low-income seniors free of charge. Each box contains 16 healthy items including rice, cereal, juice, beef stew, pasta and vegetables. Every month Hunger Task Force delivers nearly 10,000 boxes to seniors, helping them stretch their budgets.

The boxes are built by hand by 15-20 person volunteer groups each month; 12 months a year at Hunger Task Force's south warehouse located at 300 E. College Ave.

Requirements;

- Most volunteers should be able to lift 30 pounds
- Volunteers must be able to stoop, bend and be on their feet for the 3-hour shift time (we usually take a short break mid way)
- Volunteers will be filling boxes of basic needs food, moving them along a roller belt and lifting them onto a pallet
- There are carts available to put the cases of food on to fill the boxes
- This volunteer opportunity is a busy team building volunteer activity

Please contact one of the following committee members to reserve your spot and insure we have enough people to participate.

Additional information will be provided to those interested in volunteering.

Are you considering serving the Church as an Ordained Deacon? The Church calls men to be deacons "in-service" to the People of God. If you are a man (married or single), that feels this call and wants to know more, please contact the Office for Diaconate Formation at 414-758-2202 or ebelj@archmil.org. Now is the time to prepare; Inquiry for Discernment sessions are forming for men who would like to enter the application process to begin in January of 2018!

If you're not fond of the Wisconsin winter weather, check out our INDOOR option with a free week at the WAC (8700 W. Watertown Plank).

Hope to see you there!

Open House & Ice Cream Social

This past Tuesday evening, one of the many celebratory Catholic School's Week activities that took place was our Open House & Ice Cream Social.

You could feel the energy and excitement throughout building. The classrooms, hallways and walls were brimming with our students' pictures, projects, artwork and more! It was wonderful to see so many new faces among our current families, together exploring the sights, sounds and people that make up Christ King School.

We are humbled and honored to have such a diverse, positive and dedicated community of teachers, staff, parents, and students. Thank you to everyone who contributed and came out to support our school and Catholic Education. We often say "Respect and find Jesus in everyone you meet" and it was certainly felt that night!

Individual and group identity are important concepts for human beings. We spend a life time figuring out who we are as individuals, and where we belong. There is much discussion currently about Catholic Identity. As our church and our world become more connected, questions about identity seem pertinent. There is a natural tendency to find comfort and identity in our cultural norms. While there is surely nothing wrong with knowing who we are and what we like, the tendency to close ourselves off and discount another's story is overwhelming. I wonder how concerned God is with questions of identity. We know God loves us individually and we hope to have a personal relationship with our creator, but is God as concerned with our cultural background, race, age, and gender as we are? Perhaps our most important identity lies in our relationship with God, as sons and daughters in God's loving embrace.

if our prayer is going to call us all to God. Some churches have made the decision to offer music in specific styles at certain Masses. In some cases, this is a conscious decision made by leaders to please individual tastes. The 8:00 "Folk Mass" or the 10:30 "Choir Mass" are examples. Each has a completely different repertoire to meet the tastes of the music ministers and those who attend that Mass. Often, but less spoken the choice to minister this way is about the limitations of musicians. Someone who is a great pianist, may not be willing or able to play the organ or chooses to play only one style of liturgical music that he or she finds personally prayerful. Whatever the motivation, this way of thinking divides a parish on the basis musical taste. Instead of opening ourselves to another and how they might experience God in art, we close ourselves off and only view God from own limited perspective. It's comfortable but not very enlightening.

Our individual and communal identity should be reflected in our parish Masses. Our Masses should also be welcoming to those who don't necessarily share all of the same aspects of our identity. The invitation to prayer is vital to the life of any faith community. An informal way to assess the invitation to prayer offered by a community is the energy shared during Masses. Do we, the faithful, take ownership of the sung and spoken parts of the Mass, offering ourselves to God and others during worship? Is there variety of music offered during the Mass that visitors find inviting?

Our new Mass setting, Mass of St. Ann by Ed Bolduc is part of a continuing effort on my part to offer a variety of musical styles when we gather for worship. It is a bit more contemporary in rhythm and instrumentation than some of our other settings. Mass settings matter! We sing more of the Mass setting (Gloria, Holy Holy, Memorial Acclamation, Amen, Lamb of God) than anything else in the Mass. These settings should color the liturgical season and draw the community into prayer. The Mass of St. Ann is our last new Mass Setting for a while, we now have one for each liturgical season and a few for ordinary time. If the Mass of St. Ann isn't your favorite take heart, it's likely drawing someone around you to God and a different Mass Setting for the Lenten season is just around the corner.

The likes or dislikes of an individual or certain group are considered, but we need to be about the bigger picture

Martha and Mathews

The Martha and Mathews are a group that meet to do light cleaning and polishing in the Church once a month. The brass needs polishing, the kneeler pads need replacing, mopping of certain areas and making sure the pews are clean and respectable are just some of the duties. Do you have an hour or two to help keep our church looking so beautiful? Maybe you would want to form a small group and work together. The parishioners that have been doing this are in their 80's and 90's. They could use some help! If you can find the time please give Adam Hartung a call and he can give you the details 262-252-8073.
