INTRODUCING WONDERMAKERS!

Check out our new weekly video and activity guide on triparishfaithformation.org/wondermakers, that will help kids ponder the Gospel reading for the coming Sunday and give them an opportunity to respond to Jesus. We will also take a brief look at a specific part of the Mass so your child can learn more about what they are praying each week. This is a great way to grow along side your child during this time.

REQUIESCAT IN PACE

Please remember in your prayers the repose of the soul of † Nan Kreitzer whom God has called into eternity and was buried this past week.

PRAYER REQUESTS

Prayer requests may be submitted anonymously or they can be signed. All requests will be held in confidence. Look for the "Request a Prayer" on the website homepage.

KEEPING SUNDAY HOLY

APRIL 26: 3rd Sunday of Easter

The Coronavirus has upended almost all normalcy from our daily lives: no more school, no more soccer practice, no more work conferences...no more Mass? Though your family cannot attend Mass in person this Sunday, we know your family needs a rooted, hope-filled connection to God. So we invite you to set aside an hour this Sunday to pray and discover the Gospel message as a family. Below are some suggestions, tips, and

Stream Sunday Mass

There are numerous options for your family to stream Sunday Masses. Here are a few we think you'll love.

- Cathedral Mass on TV/RADIO: You can watch Mass at the Cathedral live on Fox 6 at 11am every Sunday. You can also listen to the 9am Mass on the radio at 920AM WOKY.
- Mass with Fr. Paul at St. Pius X: St. Pius parish is posting Sunday Mass with Fr. Paul Portland, SDS and Fr. Patric Nikolas, SDS which includes music. (<http://www.stpiusparish.org/>)
- Mass with Bishop Barron: Bishop Barron has a gift for teaching the faith. He offers daily and Sunday Masses on his "Word on Fire" website with high quality audio and camera. Videos are posted at 7:15am daily. (<https://www.wordonfire.org/daily-mass/>)
- Mass with Fr. Mike Schmitz: Fr. Mike is an international speaker, he is high-energy, inspiring, and engaging. He is beloved by many, but especially teens and young adults. Livestream on youtube at 9am.
- Mass with Fr. Dennis Saran: If you're looking for something a bit more familiar, Fr. Dennis Saran (former associate pastor at Christ King and St. Bernard) posts daily and Sunday Masses. These Masses have a more "normal" feel as they have included music and lectors. (<https://stdominic.net/gather/mass-recordings/>)

Follow Along

You can follow along with the Mass readings or nominate a family member to read them aloud:

- US Conference of Catholic Bishops (<http://uscgb.org/bible/readings/index.cfm>)
- Laudate or Magnificat App (free on iphone and android)
- Pause the video to open your Bibles to the correct passage and follow along.
 - Acts 2:14, 22-33
 - Psalm 16: 1-2, 5, 7-11
 - 2nd Reading: 1 Peter 1:17-21
 - Gospel: Luke 24:13-35

Tried and true tips...

- Set expectations: Explain that when we stream Mass, this isn't like watching a movie, this time is unique and we should treat it the same way we treat Mass when we're in church. No giggling, eating, drinking, etc.
- Dress up... or at least don't wear pajamas. Changing our clothes into something special is a mental cue that what we're doing is different.
- Set up chairs like a pew: Move your couch out of the way and set up dining room chairs in a line or half circle. Comfy chairs and couches are a signal to veg out and turn off our brain. Sitting in a dining room chair is a bit less comfortable, but it reminds us of sitting in pews at church and may help us focus.
- Set up you coffee table like a family altar. Move a coffee table in front of your tv and add two candles and a crucifix. Then invite each member of your family to add one religious item of their choosing to the table; these could be religious art, crucifixes, rosaries, prayers, Bibles, pictures of your family receiving the sacraments, etc. Make sure every family member is represented somehow.
- Stand, sit, kneel, and reply. Do all the postures and responses you would normally do at Mass. This will keep you engaged and make this feel a bit more like a normal Mass.
- Find Lectors: If you are not live-streaming, you can nominate family members to read the 1st and 2nd readings and the psalms (see attached), then just fast forward to the Gospel. But, remember to let the priest or deacon on tv read the Gospel!
- Add your own petitions: pause the video after the petitions are read and ask each family member to add their own intentions.
- Make an act of spiritual communion. During communion time, when you would normally receive the Eucharist, lead your family in making the prayer of spiritual communion. This prayer asks God to give you all the graces you would receive from the Eucharist, even if you can't receive it today.
- Have a delicious, Sunday-worthy breakfast after Mass!

Interactive Family Time...

- Family Bible Study: If you can't stream Mass, or you want something more, consider leading a little Bible study on the Sunday readings with your family. You can find a one-hour family-friendly exploration of the Sunday Gospel, including discussion, activities, reflection video and prayer through Life Teen. (www.summit.lifeteen.com)
- Living the Liturgy: For more suggestions on how to celebrate with the Church, view our blog at www.triparishfaithformation.org/mass

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

First Reading

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles...

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed: "You who are Jews, indeed all of you staying in Jerusalem. Let this be known to you, and listen to my words. You who are Israelites, hear these words. Jesus the Nazarene was a man commended to you by God with mighty deeds, wonders, and signs, which God worked through him in your midst, as you yourselves know. This man, delivered up by the set plan and foreknowledge of God, you killed, using lawless men to crucify him. But God raised him up, releasing him from the throes of death, because it was impossible for him to be held by it. For David says of him: I saw the Lord ever before me, with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed. Therefore my heart has been glad and my tongue has exulted; my flesh, too, will dwell in hope, because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your holy one to see corruption. You have made known to me the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence.

"My brothers, one can confidently say to you about the patriarch David that he died and was buried, and his tomb is in our midst to this day. But since he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants upon his throne, he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he abandoned to the netherworld nor did his flesh see corruption. God raised this Jesus; of this we are all witnesses. Exalted at the right hand of God, he received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father and poured him forth, as you see and hear."

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Second Reading

A reading from the first letter of Peter...

Beloved: If you invoke as Father him who judges impartially according to each one's works, conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning, realizing that you were ransomed from your futile conduct, handed on by your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold but with the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb. He was known before the foundation of the world but revealed in the final time for you, who through him believe in God who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading

That very day, the first day of the week, two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village seven miles from Jerusalem called Emmaus, and they were conversing about all the things that had occurred. And it happened that while they were conversing and debating, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him. He asked them, "What are you discussing as you walk along?" They stopped, looking downcast. One of them, named Cleopas, said to him in reply, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know of the things that have taken place there in these days?" And he replied to them, "What sort of things?" They said to him, "The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, how our chief priests and rulers both handed him over to a sentence of death and crucified him. But we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel; and besides all this, it is now the third day since this took place. Some women from our group, however, have astounded us: they were at the tomb early in the morning and did not find his body; they came back and reported that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who announced that he was alive. Then some of those with us went to the tomb and found things just as the women had described, but him they did not see." And he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the Scriptures.

As they approached the village to which they were going, he gave the impression that he was going on farther. But they urged him, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them. And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?" So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

GOD'S DESIRE FOR YOU: THE POWER OF PRAYER

OVERVIEW

- God created YOU out of an act of love. And this love of God holds us into existence. Meaning, if He stopped thinking about you for one moment, you would no longer exist.
- God delights in who you are as a parent delights in their child.
- God, the Father, sent His Son Jesus to restore our communion with Him.
- Prayer is how we respond back to God out of love.
- In prayer, our desire for God, meets God's desire for us.
- Key passages referenced: CCC 1, 2560 and 1 John 4:16,19

THE CATECHISM

The Catechism of the Catholic Church is a beautiful compilation of Church teaching. It compiles Scripture and the Tradition of the Church to provide answers to our biggest questions. The very first paragraph of the book states, "God, infinitely perfect and blessed in himself, in a plan of sheer goodness freely created man to make him share in his own blessed life. For this reason, at every time and in every place, God draws close to man." God draws close to YOU. His desire is for you to share in His life. Our response back to God's goodness is expressed in prayer.

"I WOULD CREATE THE WORLD AGAIN JUST TO HEAR YOU SAY YOU LOVE ME."

JOIN THE CONVERSATION

Join us each week for an online conversation to discuss the weekly video and to encourage and support one another in spiritual communion. Discussion group begins this week. You can call into the discussion or join via video chat. Wednesdays: 12-12:35pm, sign up online:

www.triparishfaithformation.org/spiritual-communion

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. How did last week's challenge go for you of praying the prayer of Spiritual Communion?
2. Think of someone in your life whom you love, spend time with, and communicate with; how does your relationship with them compare with your relationship with God?
3. "Prayer is the encounter of God's thirst with ours," What do you think this means?
4. Where will you set up a prayer space in your home? What elements will your prayer space include?
5. Close your time reflecting on the meaning of this passage, 1 John 4:16,19:

"So we know and believe the love God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. We love, because he first loved us."

FAMILY FOCUS

For children, environment is everything. This is how they experience the world. Dr. Maria Montessori said that "what the hands do, the mind remembers." This is not only true for their every day life, but their spiritual life as well. Take time this week to not only find a spot for you to pray, but challenge your family to find a space to set aside and make a family prayer table. This can be a small table or shelf covered with a cloth, adorned with a Bible and some other holy items. You can find more information on what you need to set up such a space here: Prepare A Prayer Space.

WEEKLY CHALLENGE

Our environment impacts us greatly. When we are at home, our brain is signaled to relax. When we are at school, our brain is signaled to attentiveness. When in Church, we are drawn to prayer. There are cues from our environment that alert us to our surroundings.

Sacred Space: This week, your challenge is to create a prayer spot in your home that can become a "sacred space." Maybe this looks like sitting in a particular chair in your living room or finding a sunny spot to sit cross legged on the floor for your time of prayer. No matter where your space is, have it set apart from other spaces of your home by setting up an image of Christ, the Saints, or a crucifix to remind you what the space is intended for—prayer!

Sacred Time: Also this week, reflect on when you can set aside "sacred time" or time you guard as time with God. Maybe this is first thing in the morning with a cup of coffee or in the evening after dinner.
