CONSECRATION OF THE US AND CANADA

Archbishop José H. Gomez of Los Angeles and president of the USCCB has announced that the U.S. bishops will join the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops on May 1 in renewing the consecration of the two nations to the care of our Blessed Mother. Through a collective dedication or entrustment of a nation to Mary, an act of consecration is meant to be a reminder to the faithful of the Blessed Mother's witness to the Gospel and to ask for her effective intercession before her Son on behalf of those in need.

In Milwaukee, join the consecration virtually at the YouTube page for the Cathedral of Saint John the Evangelist on Friday, May 1 at 2:00 p.m.

KEEPING SUNDAY HOLY

MAY 3: 4th Sunday of Easter

The Coronavirus has upended almost all normalcy from our daily lives: no more school, no more soccer practice, no more work conferences...no more Mass? Though your family cannot attend Mass in person this Sunday, we know your family needs a rooted, hope-filled connection to God. So we invite you to set aside an hour this Sunday to pray and discover the Gospel message as a family. Below are some suggestions, tips, and tools to help you navigate this new terrain.

Stream Sunday Mass

There are numerous options for your family to stream Sunday Masses. Here are a few we think you'll love.

- Cathedral Mass on TV/RADIO: You can watch Mass at the Cathedral live on Fox 6 at 11am every Sunday. You can also listen to the 9am Mass on the radio at 920AM WOKY.
- Mass with Fr. Paul at St. Pius X: St. Pius parish is posting Sunday Mass with Fr. Paul Portland, SDS and Fr. Patric Nikolas, SDS which includes music. (<http://www.stpiusparish.org/>)
- Mass with Bishop Barron: Bishop Barron has a gift for teaching the faith. He offers daily and Sunday Masses on his "Word on Fire" website with high quality audio and camera. Videos are posted at 7:15am daily. (<https://www.wordonfire.org/daily-mass/>)
- Mass with Fr. Mike Schmitz: Fr. Mike is an international speaker, he is high-energy, inspiring, and engaging. He is beloved by many, but especially teens and young adults. Livestream on youtube at 9am.
- Mass with Fr. Dennis Saran: If you're looking for something a bit more familiar, Fr. Dennis Saran (former associate pastor at Christ King and St. Bernard) posts daily and Sunday Masses. These Masses have a more "normal" feel as they have included music and lectors. (<https://stdominic.net/gather/mass-recordings/>)

Follow Along

You can follow along with the Mass readings or nominate a family member to read them aloud:

- US Conference of Catholic Bishops (<http://usccb.org/bible/readings/index.cfm>)
- Laudate or Magnificat App (free on iphone and android)
- Pause the video to open your Bibles to the correct passage and follow along.
  - Acts 2:14, 36-41
  - Psalm 23: 1-6
  - 2nd Reading: 1 Peter 2:20-25
  - Gospel: John 10:1-10

Tried and true tips...

- Set expectations: Explain that when we stream Mass, this isn't like watching a movie, this time is unique and we should treat it the same way we treat Mass when we're in church. No giggling, eating, drinking, etc.
- Dress up... or at least don't wear pajamas. Changing our clothes into something special is a mental cue that what we're doing is different.
- Set up chairs like a pew: Move your couch out of the way and set up dining room chairs in a line or half circle. Comfy chairs and couches are a signal to veg out and turn off our brain. Sitting in a dining room chair is a bit less comfortable, but it reminds us of sitting in pews at church and may help us focus.
- Set up you coffee table like a family altar. Move a coffee table in front of your tv and add two candles and a crucifix. Then invite each member of your family to add one religious item of their choosing to the table; these could be religious art, crucifixes, rosaries, prayers, Bibles, pictures of your family receiving the sacraments, etc. Make sure every family member is represented somehow.
- Stand, sit, kneel, and reply. Do all the postures and responses you would normally do at Mass. This will keep you engaged and make this feel a bit more like a normal Mass.
- Find Lectors: If you are not live-streaming, you can nominate family members to read the 1st and 2nd readings and the psalms (see attached), then just fast forward to the Gospel. But, remember to let the priest or deacon on tv read the Gospel!
- Add your own petitions: pause the video after the petitions are read and ask each family member to add their own intentions.
- Make an act of spiritual communion. During communion time, when you would normally receive the Eucharist, lead your family in making the prayer of spiritual communion. This prayer asks God to give you all the graces you would receive from the Eucharist, even if you can't receive it today.
- Have a delicious, Sunday-worthy breakfast after Mass!

Interactive Family Time...

- Family Bible Study: If you can't stream Mass, or you want something more, consider leading a little Bible study on the Sunday readings with your family. You can find a one-hour family-friendly exploration of the Sunday Gospel, including discussion, activities, reflection video and prayer through Life Teen. (www.summit.lifeteen.com)
- Living the Liturgy: For more suggestions on how to celebrate with the Church, view our blog at www.triparishfaithformation.org/mass

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritual-ly into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

First Reading

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles...

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed: "Let the whole house of Israel know for certain that God has made both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified."

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and they asked Peter and the other apostles, "What are we to do, my brothers?" Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is made to you and to your children and to all those far off, whomever the Lord our God will call." He testified with many other arguments, and was exhorting them, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand persons were added that day.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Second Reading

A reading from the first letter of Peter...

Beloved: Beloved: If you are patient when you suffer for doing what is good, this is a grace before God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example that you should follow in his footsteps. He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth.

When he was insulted, he returned no insult; when he suffered, he did not threaten; instead, he handed himself over to the one who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body upon the cross, so that, free from sin, we might live for righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you had gone astray like sheep, but you have now returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading

Jesus said: "Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever does not enter a sheepfold through the gate but climbs over elsewhere is a thief and a robber. But whoever enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has driven out all his own, he walks ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, because they recognize his voice. But they will not follow a stranger; they will run away from him, because they do not recognize the voice of strangers." Although Jesus used this figure of speech, the Pharisees did not realize what he was trying to tell them.

So Jesus said again, "Amen, amen, I say to you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. A thief comes only to steal and slaughter and destroy; I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly."

ADORATION: OBSERVING & DESIRING GOD

OVERVIEW

- Adore: to love something so deeply, to worship.
- The Art of Observation opens our eyes to God's action in our lives, helping us to Adore Him.
- Jesus asks us to approach us like little children.
- Prayer is responding to the love that God has first given to us.
- The word "blessing" means adoration.
- Key References: CCC 1078, Psalm 145

PRAYER IS A SURGE OF THE HEART, IT IS A SIMPLE LOOK TURNED TOWARD HEAVEN, IT IS A CRY OF RECOGNITION AND OF LOVE, EMBRACING BOTH TRIAL AND JOY."

- SAINT THERESE OF LISIEUX -

ADORATION

Fun fact! The Church is open for prayer and for Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. These special days and times of Adoration are:

- Tuesdays: St. Bernard, 2pm—8pm
- Thursdays: Christ King, 6am—8pm
- Saturday: Christ King, 9am –12pm

Scheduled adorers needed! Sign up at:
triparishfaithformation.org/mass

JOIN THE CONVERSATION

Join us each week for an online conversation to discuss the weekly video and to encourage and support one another in spiritual communion. Discussion group begins this week. You can call into the discussion or join via video chat. Wednesdays: 12-12:35pm, sign up online:

www.triparishfaithformation.org/spiritual-communion

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. How does the prayer space in your home look? What elements have you added to help this space to be set apart from the rest of your home?
2. Recall a moment in your life when you experienced a blessing. How did this blessing make you more aware of God's presence in your life?
3. Sam shared about a time when she experienced an awe and reverence for God in a powerful way. When have you been in awe of God?
4. How does the Church help you in your search for God?

FAMILY FOCUS

Adoration tends to come naturally for children and a great way to facilitate this attitude in prayer is through the making of prayer cards. You can find a great resource online with who to make prayer cards with your child here:

Prayer cards highlight words and phrases of prayer so that your child can learn a "language" of prayer as they grow in their own friendship with Jesus.

WEEKLY CHALLENGE

This week, take time to be silent and observe the world around you. Where do you observe God? Where do you notice His presence? Begin each morning in your prayer space adoring God by using words such as, "God, you are _____," (good, faithful, loving, forgiving, etc.), help me to notice you through out this day." Before bed, write down one way you observed God's presence. (This might have been during work, with your family, on a walk outside, etc.)
