Summer Hiatus Details

This is a reminder that I must be in Washington, D.C. for a third summer to continue canon law studies the Archbishop has assigned me to complete. I will depart June 2 and return August 13 to the parishes. I have been taking online classes through the year in addition to the full summers. The program has been going well so far and I expect to be finished late in 2019. I'll be living once again at the Franciscan Monastery of the Holy Land, just east of Catholic University, where I attend classes.

While I am away, Fr. Dennis Saran, pastor at Saint Dominic Parish and our former associate pastor, has been assigned as Temporary Administrator for both parishes. Thus, he will sign checks and stand in the role of pastor during my absence. He will not be with us much liturgically, due to his own parish commitments, but is administratively responsible for the parishes. I am grateful for his generosity in taking over this role.

Liturgically, we have some wonderful priests who will celebrate Masses, assisting Fr. Joe and Fr. Will (starting June 19). So you will be blessed with a variety of celebrants who all help us focus on Jesus Christ in unique ways.

Of course, our staff is extremely capable and will, with you, enjoy some quiet time over these months.

While I am away, know of my prayers for you every day and eagerness to be back in August.

Sacramental Preparation and Religious Education Thank You

Last weekend completed three weeks of First Communion celebrations in our Tri Parish cluster for Samantha El-Azem, our Tri Parish Director of Formation for Children. I wish to publicly thank her for a truly wonderful first year in this role. She has very patiently and prayerfully charted a path forward to actually begin Catechesis of the Good Shepherd at certain ages, while continuing formation for older children until CGS is fully implemented within a few years. The path ahead for religious education in our three parishes could not be more exciting, and that is thanks to the vision and leadership of Sam.

Thanks as well to all our teachers, catechists and volunteers who participated in both religious education formation, as well as sacramental preparation this year. We are grateful that generous people like you step forward to share your faith.

Blessing of Christ King Statue

Next weekend, after the 8:00 a.m. Mass, I will bless the new Christ King statue that was donated to the parish. Please stop outside with me for a simple blessing of this beautiful gift. We are once again grateful to Conrad Schmidt Studios who donated the statue, and parishioners who provided the base.

We will also have hospitality after the Sunday Masses.

Blessings,
Fr. Phillip

Toiletries Drive Thank You

Thanks go out to the Christ King 6th graders who worked hard sorting and boxing the MANY toiletries generously donated by Christ King parishioners and students. The Guest House, St. Vincent de Paul, and the Milwaukee Rescue Mission will receive and benefit from your kindness. Christ King Human Concerns Committee

Small Discipleship Groups

"Being in a small group at Christ King has been such a blessing to me. I have been able to meet some wonderful people my age who share the same beliefs as I do. It is not always easy to find that camaraderie especially when you are new to a city like I was. I enjoy being able to talk about the Catholic faith openly with my group and be able to share of myself. We support and pray for each other. I look forward to our meetings every week as I have grown stronger in my faith as a result. I feel more a part of the community of Christ King. My small group has helped me to make God a priority in my life. I encourage everyone to join a small group to share in the discipleship as I have. It will touch your heart in more ways than you can imagine."

PENTECOST SUNDAY OLM

Everyday Stewardship

On this Pentecost Sunday, if you come to Mass at my parish you will see a sea of red all around. The choir, the lectors, the extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, the people in the pews, and of course the celebrant and our deacon, will all be wearing red. We are one of those parishes that strive to reflect the color of the liturgy in our dress. It can be a sight to see.

What we put on our bodies serves only as a reminder of what is really important during these liturgical celebrations. At Pentecost, it was the Spirit of God that filled those in the first Christian community. We wear red to call to mind that very Spirit, often depicted as a fire or flame. However, if we just use red as a reminder of the power of the Spirit without letting it change us, then our actions become merely sentimental.

We are filled with the Holy Spirit through the sacraments of the Church. God touches us and enters into us in a profound way, just like in that upper room at Pentecost. That first powerful movement of the Spirit led to a Church that grew and flourished and remains alive today. What is the movement of the Spirit within calling you to do today? Do we allow God to move us and do great things through us? Red is a bold color to wear at any time. But our actions should be even bolder.

--Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
