I HEARD THE BELLS...

Our church bells ring, not only (as the old song says) on Christmas Day, but every Sunday. A few minutes before the scheduled start time of the Mass, they peal out, loud and clear: our “call to worship.”

During our recent shutdown due to the Covid 19 pandemic, the bells still rang at their appointed time. At first, I viewed this as a cruel mockery: they were calling us to worship that wasn't going to happen, at least not in this church!!

But gradually, I changed my view.

The clanging bells are intended to announce that Mass is about to start. They command “Put down your bagel, finish your coffee, get in the car and go!”

Or do they? It seems like an awfully heavy burden for a bunch of bells—the ominous task of convince a diverse group of people, of all ages and from all walks of life, to get out of bed, to set aside whatever-it-is-that-they-are-doing,

Elements of Mass

and spend an hour (more or less) at church!

This may come as a surprise, but you really don't come to Mass just because of ringing bells, or because we feel like it, or because we have the time to do so, but because GOD calls you.

God draws us out of our solitude to become a part of something that is larger than ourselves. We come from different directions, we enter through different doors; but here our individual prayers join with those of the whole Church. We are entrusted with a task that only we, as a community, can accomplish: to make visible, at this point in time, in this particular place, the Body of Christ, living and active in the world.

You could look on the sound of the pealing bells as one of many ways that God speaks to us. Not only do they service as his instrument to call us to worship, they “make a joyful noise” (Psalm 100) to announce the good news that a couple has been joined in Holy Matrimony, or that a parishioner has gone before us into the Heavenly Kingdom; on Christmas Day, they announce that Christ is born; on Easter, that Christ is risen. Every day they remind ALL of us—the ENTIRE neighborhood—parishioner and non-parishioner alike—of God's presence in our daily lives!

So--back to the call to worship bells during the shutdown: was it cruel? A mockery? Hardly. It served to remind us that even at this wonky time, even when we are isolated from one another, that God is present and active in the world.

And this a comforting thing to remember!

THE DOORS

To say the least, the doors to our church are SUBSTANTIAL! Big and solid--it takes a fair amount of “oomph” to open them. And this is intentional.

Another name for a doorway is a “portal.” When I think of a portal, I often envision a gateway to another world. And in this case, I would be absolutely right! To step into a church is to step into another world, out of linear time and to step into eternity. Time--as we know it--conflates. Our past rushes forward, our future rushes backward and meets us in the present. The Paschal Mystery isn't anchored to another time, another place but realized here and now.

When you enter a church, you stand on Holy Ground. These doors form a sort of line of demarcation--separating the profane from the divine, the outside world with all of its challenges from the New Jerusalem. Once you step through those doors, you set aside your individuality, your independence and are joined to the corporate Body of Christ!

A PRAYER FOR RACIAL JUSTICE

Oh, Sacred Heart of Jesus, we have failed to live in your love. Generation after generation, your people of color have been disregarded and abused, tortured and killed. Dispel the darkness of racism and hatred in the soul of our nation and nations of the world. Have mercy on us and transform our hearts to love each person as you love them. Sacred Heart of Jesus, we place our trust in you.

VIRTUAL SUMMER ALPHA-TUESDAY EVENINGS

Every community is seeing the impact of COVID-19. During this time, you might be asking why God is allowing this to happen? Does God hear me? Or you may simply be seeking a community to process the day to day with. Wherever you are, we invite you to try Alpha. Join Alpha to be supported, be the support for another, and ask genuine questions about Faith. Come as you are.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

WILL YOU SAY YES?

You find yourself in the difficult situation of being accused of blasphemy and confronting possible execution. Your crime is believing in Jesus Christ. The question is then asked of you, "Are you a Christian, a follower of the one named Jesus Christ?" Your answer may very well dictate what happens to you next. What is your answer?

It is probably easier to answer this question when the scenario is make-believe. All of us want to believe that we would say yes to the question of belief in Jesus, but strange things happen when humans panic in the face of extreme stress. As we reflect on what we would say, there are those all over the world who are being asked that very same question. It is a question that was asked of many in the first centuries of the Church. Those who respond "yes" are considered martyrs and saints.

We might not usually think of all this in terms of good stewardship living. However, our faith is also a gift we have received from God to cultivate, grow, and share with others. The more interesting question than the one posed above is, "Would an accuser even think of asking you such a question?" Would you have cultivated, grown, and shared your faith enough that anyone would even consider you worthy of asking the question? They might assume you don't know Jesus Christ at all. I don't like conflict and do not seek out conflict, but I would rather someone ask the first question posed than assume there is no reason to confront me in the first place.
