

ORGAN DELIVERY UPDATE!

Five installers from Canadian builder, Juget-Sinclair, have been hard at work unloading the large pipes and accompanying pieces of the new organ. The church was closed this past week so as to have a place to stage the many parts as they began the installation process.

Watch for updates, videos and more pictures here and on our social media sites as the installation progresses over the next few months.

LIVING THE CALL
Sharing God's Gifts

