ARCHDIOCESE OF MILWAUKEE PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL NORMS

“If the diocesan bishop judges it opportune after he has heard the presbyteral (Priests’) council, a pastoral council is to be established in each parish, over which the pastor* presides and in which the Christian faithful, together with those who share in pastoral care by virtue of their office in the parish, assist in fostering pastoral activity (Code of Canon Law, c. 536.1). A pastoral council possesses a consultative vote only and is governed by the norms established by the diocesan bishop (c. 536.2).” This consultative body is called a Parish Pastoral Council.

Wherever the word “pastor” appears, read also “administrator” or “parish director.”*

PURPOSE

- 1.1 The Council shall be a vehicle for the parish to fulfill the pastoral mission of Jesus and the Church in a specific part of the Archdiocese. It does this by developing Catholic identity, promoting evangelization, and fostering stewardship.
- 1.2 The Council shall strive to build a community of disciples who recognize their baptismal calls to lives of holiness, witness and service.
- 1.3 The Council shall engage in a continuous process of pastoral planning, which takes into account the needs and priorities of its parishioners, the Archdiocese, the broader community, and the world.

RANGE OF RESPONSIBILITY

- 2.1 The Council shall be the consultative and planning body in regards to pastoral activity except to the extent limited by faith and morals, church or civil law or archdiocesan policy. The Council possesses a consultative vote only.
- 2.2 In any case where the pastor judges an action of the Council to be outside the limits set forth in #2.1, the pastor may withhold implementation, providing the Council with a rationale. The Council may appeal to the Office of the Archbishop or one appointed by him for clarification or arbitration. Any decision regarding the appeal will be final.
- 2.3 In any case where any member of the Council interprets an action of the Council to be outside the limits set forth in #2.1, the member shall present the interpretation no later than the next meeting of the Council and ask for reconsideration. If reconsideration fails to resolve the matter, any Council member may then take the matter to the Office of the Archbishop or one appointed by him, for clarification or arbitration. Any decision resulting from such an appeal shall be final.

MEMBERSHIP

- 3.1 The Council shall be comprised of ex officio members and at least twice their number of at-large members, all of whom must be baptized, practicing Catholics, registered members of the parish, participants in the parish worship life, especially Mass and the sacraments, and at least 18 years of age.
- 3.2 The Council shall have the following ex officio members: the pastor(s), associate pastor(s), and the lay trustees. Ex officio members participate fully and equally in all Council matters.
- 3.3 At-large representatives shall be selected from and by the membership of the parish 18 years of age or older.
- 3.4 The term for at-large members shall be three years and shall be limited to two consecutive terms. The new members shall begin their terms with the conclusion of the annual transition meeting.
- 3.5 Parishes have the option to select youth representation. A youth representative must be at least 14 years of age but not yet 18, whose parents are registered members, and shall be selected annually from and by the youth members of the parish.

NOMINATION AND SELECTION OF NEW MEMBERS

- 4.1 At each annual selection, one-third of the members shall be selected for a term of three years to fill the vacancies caused by the members whose terms are due to expire.
- 4.2 Parish employees and their immediate family members are ineligible to serve on the Council. Husband and wife, siblings or parent and child may not serve together on the Parish Pastoral and Finance Councils.
- 4.3 A Selection Committee should be appointed by the chairperson after consultation with the Council to manage all aspects of the nomination and selection process including: education of parishioners, nomination, notification of nominees, nominee orientation session, slate of nominees, and facilitation of the selection process.
- 4.4 The selection of new members of the Council shall be by discernment or election.
- 4.5 For the selection of a youth representative, a similar nomination and selection process should be followed.

OFFICERS

- 5.1 The officers of the Council shall be a chairperson, a vice-chair or chair-elect, and a secretary. They shall be selected by and from the Council at the annual transition meeting. The selection shall be by discernment or election. Officers shall serve for a one-year term beginning with the conclusion of the transition meeting. Ex officio members of the Council are ineligible to serve as Council officers or committee chairpersons.

- 5.2 The pastor is the president of the Parish Pastoral Council. The pastor presides at the Council by:
- a. Attending all Council meetings.
 - b. Making certain that the scope of the Council's concerns reflects the entire mission of the Church.
 - c. Enabling the Council to build a community of faith and an atmosphere of trust among Council members.
 - d. Insuring that Pastoral Council members have adequate training.
 - e. Assisting in formulating the Council agenda.
 - f. Sharing in the dialogue which leads to Council recommendations.
 - g. Serving as chief administrative officer of the parish.
 - h. Implementing the recommendations formulated by the Council.
 - i. Consulting with the Council before requesting a proxy from the archbishop. The consensus of the Council shall be represented in the request for proxy.
- 5.3 The chairperson moderates the meetings of the Pastoral Council by:
- a. Knowing the tasks and responsibilities of the Council.
 - b. Organizing/coordinating the activities and work of the Council.
 - c. Preparing the meeting agendas in consultation with the executive committee and submitting the agenda to Council members at least 3 days before the meeting.
 - d. Providing for ongoing formation/education of Council members.
 - e. Facilitating Council meetings by helping the members work together, participate fully in discussions, and make decisions through consensus.
 - f. Monitoring implementation of all Council recommendations and decisions.
 - g. Insuring that a Council budget is established and monitored.
 - h. Serving as an ex officio member of all standing commissions and ad hoc committees of the Council.
 - i. Serving as the parish representative to the district assemblies of the Archdiocesan Pastoral Council or designating someone after consultation with the Council (See Relationship to District Assemblies in 10.1 and following).
 - j. Orienting a new chairperson to the role and transferring Council materials.
 - k. Performing duties consistent with the office as the Council may direct.
- 5.4 The vice-chair or chair-elect serves the Pastoral Council by:
- a. Conducting meetings in the absence of the chairperson.
 - b. Becoming chairperson in the event of vacancy and, as chair-elect, assuming the office of chairperson upon completion of the current chair's term.
 - c. Performing duties consistent with the office as the chairperson or the Council may direct.
- 5.5 The secretary serves the Pastoral Council by:
- a. Recording the minutes of the meetings or overseeing the minutes if a non-member compiles them and making the minutes available to Council, commission/committee members and parishioners.

- b. Taking attendance at meetings and recording any absences.
- c. Maintaining the official list of Council and commission/committee members which includes their terms and contact information.
- d. Assisting the parish web administrator to keep the archdiocesan registry on the extranet current whenever a change in membership occurs.
- e. Performing duties consistent with the office as the chairperson or Council may direct.

MEETINGS

- 6.1 Pastoral Council meetings shall be held on a regular basis, no fewer than six times each year. In those cases where parishes are clustered, the Pastoral Councils may meet jointly several times each year or consolidate into a single cluster Council with representation from each parish.
- 6.2 The agenda shall be developed in advance of the meeting by the pastor and the officers. The agenda should include prayer, pastor's comments, Finance Council update, ongoing items, new items, and reports from commissions/committees. Parishioners may submit agenda items for consideration to the executive committee.
- 6.3 The Council meetings are open to members of the parish who are welcome to attend as observers. Advance notice of the time and place of the meetings shall be published in the parish bulletin. The Council may invite observers to participate in the discussion of certain agenda items.
- 6.4 A special meeting may be called by the pastor, chairperson or a quorum to address a single, urgent matter. A quorum consists of a majority of members. The meeting is presided over by the pastor, facilitated by the chairperson, and the minutes are recorded.

RESIGNATIONS AND VACANCIES

- 7.1 Any member of the Council may resign by filing a written resignation with the pastor and a copy to the chairperson.
- 7.2 At any meeting of the Council, any at-large member may be removed for good cause by consensus or by a majority vote of the Council. Good cause includes missing two consecutive meetings without good reason, physical or mental incapacity or failure to perform duties as a Council member. Any member whose removal has been proposed shall be given an opportunity to be heard at the meeting.
- 7.3 A vacancy among the at-large members shall be filled by one appointed to serve the remainder of the term. The chairperson will make the appointment with the approval of the Council. First consideration should be given to previous nominees.

MANNER OF OPERATION

- 8.1 The Council's manner of decision-making shall be communal discernment, which includes prayerful reflection, gathering of information, dialogue and sharing of conclusions. The usual method of reaching conclusions shall be consensus.

RELATIONSHIP TO FINANCE COUNCIL

- 9.1 One of the Finance Council representatives from the Pastoral Council provides an update on activity to the Pastoral Council at its regular meetings.
- 9.2 The Pastoral Council, in conjunction with its standing commissions/committees participates with the Finance Council in the annual parish budget process for ministries and operations.
- 9.3 The Finance Council collaborates with the standing commissions/committees of the Pastoral Council in its gathering of information and communication on financial matters. The Council may request a committee chairperson or a staff member to prepare a study or to attend a meeting as a resource.

RELATIONSHIP TO DISTRICT ASSEMBLIES OF PASTORAL COUNCIL REPRESENTATIVES

- 10.1 District assemblies are convened regularly by the district representative of the Archdiocesan Pastoral Council and the district representative of the Archdiocesan Council of Priests. These assemblies allow the Archbishop to consult with pastoral councils on certain pastoral activities in the Archdiocese as well as for parishes and districts to bring pastoral issues to his attention.
- 10.2 The chairperson or another person designated after consultation with the Council attends each assembly as a representative of the pastoral council and parish. The representative submits a report to the Council about the meeting and conducts any other activity which may be requested.
- 10.3 The Council designee to the district assembly participates in the selection of the district representative to the Archdiocesan Pastoral Council at the expiration of a term. Each APC district representative serves a three-year term which is limited to two consecutive terms. Each district representative is selected from and by the Pastoral Council representatives in the district.

COMMISSIONS

- 11.1 The Council has four or five standing commissions to assist with the implementation and coordination of pastoral activity in the parish. Councils may choose between the titles of “Commission” or “Committee” for these groups. The standing commissions are:
- a. Worship. This commission nourishes and gives direction to the liturgical and communal prayer life of the community. The members collaborate with the pastor and staff in this area of mission on liturgy preparation, the training and formation of the various liturgical ministers, and the formation of the assembly about the sacraments and liturgy. The commission may have committees, such as environment, extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist, greeters, and lectors.
 - b. Formation. This commission promotes and develops opportunities for lifelong faith formation aimed at personal conversion and growth in faith. The members collaborate with the pastor and staff in this area of mission on programs of evangelization and catechesis. The commission may have committees, such as evangelization, child ministry, youth ministry, young adult ministry, adult and family ministry, and vocations.
 - c. Human Concerns. This commission discerns and responds to the needs of persons in the parish, the wider community and the world by identifying resources to meet their needs and enlisting the active cooperation of parishioners. The members collaborate with the pastor, staff, and other organizations and agencies in service, advocacy, justice education, and empowerment of people. The commission may have committees, such as pro-life, meal program, and food pantry.
 - d. Stewardship. This commission educates and promotes the giftedness of all parishioners and the responsibility of disciples to steward all resources. The members collaborate with pastor and staff to develop strategies and practices which invite all parishioners and the parish organization itself to share time, talent, and treasure. The commission may have committees, such as new member welcome and volunteer opportunities.
 - e. School. This commission can also be structured as a committee of the Formation Commission or fulfill its intent by providing for representation on a collaborative Catholic school body. The commission promotes and develops Catholic elementary and secondary education. The members provide advice to the pastor and principal regarding policy development, school finances/budget development, strategic planning, marketing, and development. The commission may have committees or subcommittees to carry out these areas of responsibility. The School Commission may operate under its own set of bylaws if incorporated.
- 11.2 The Executive Committee consists of the pastor and Council officers. This committee establishes the meeting agenda and insures that members are provided with meeting materials prior to the meeting.

- 11.3 The Council may establish ad hoc committees as needed. The Council shall define the purpose for an ad hoc committee and establish a timeline for the completion of its task. A member of the Council serves as the chairperson and reports on the progress of the committee. The Council may invite parishioners to serve on these temporary committees.
- 11.4 The Council can select liaisons to each standing commission to attend the meetings or schedule each commission to meet at least annually with the Council to discuss the area of mission and ministry. Liaisons shall serve for a one-year term beginning with the conclusion of the transition meeting. Ex officio members of the Council are ineligible to serve as liaisons.
- 11.5 Standing commissions shall submit a summary or report of each meeting to the Council for review and discussion.
- 11.6 The Council, at the request of a standing commission, may establish a committee to assist in a specific area of ministry. Councils may choose between the titles of “committee,” “sub-committee” or “ministry team” for such groups. The committee reports to the commission and its activity is included in the summary report to the Council. Committees also operate under the commission guidelines.

COMMISSION GUIDELINES

- 12.1 Purpose. Each standing commission implements the parish priorities and goals in its specific area of mission and responsibility. Commissions are the task groups of the Pastoral Council. Together with the pastor and the pastoral staff, they strive to build a community of disciples who seek communion in the Church and the world.
- 12.2 Range of Responsibility. All commissions and committees work in collaboration with the Pastoral Council. The pastor appoints staff members in specific areas of ministry to work with particular commissions and committees. These staff members are hired and supervised by the pastor and are responsible for an area of ministry as specified in a job description. The initiation of a new area of programming or major changes to an existing program should be proposed to the Pastoral Council for consideration. In most instances, commissions are consulted in their areas of mission and responsibility following the principle of subsidiarity, which means that issues are addressed at the most appropriate level in the parish commission structure.

In any case where any commission member interprets an action of a commission to be outside the limits of its responsibilities, that member shall present such interpretation to the Council liaison or Council officer, no later than the next Council meeting and ask for reconsideration by the Council. The decision of the Council shall be final.

- 12.3 Functions. The basic functions of each Pastoral Council standing commission are to:
- a. Identify the needs of the parish within the area of mission and responsibility.
 - b. Prioritize the needs and recommend ways to respond to the Council.

- c. Plan for the development of activity in the area of ministry by formulating goals, objectives, timelines and determining who will be responsible for implementation.
- d. Study new program developments or strategies and assess their potential for use in the parish.
- e. Submit proposals for new programs or significant changes to programs to the Council.
- f. Assist the Council in the study of particular issues as requested.
- g. Promote the activities and programs of the Commission and communicate to the parish leadership and parishioners.
- h. Follow Archdiocesan guidelines in the area of mission, consult with Archdiocesan offices, and use the resources available through the offices and agencies.
- i. Provide opportunities for the ongoing formation of members.
- j. Develop a budget for the area of ministry.
- k. Conduct ongoing evaluation of existing activities and programs.

12.4 Membership. The number of commission members can range from 7 to 12 members. In addition, the pastor can appoint one or more staff members as ex officio members of a commission. It is optional for a staff member to be appointed to each committee.

- a. All commission members must be baptized, practicing Catholics and registered members of the parish, at least 18 years of age.
- b. Members serve one year terms. An annual membership list shall be submitted at the start of each commission year to the Council secretary.
- c. Any committee member may resign by filing a written resignation with the commission chairperson.
- d. At any regular meeting, a member may be removed for good cause by consensus or by an affirmative vote of three-fourths of the commission. Good cause includes missing two consecutive meetings without a good reason, physical or mental incapacity, or failure to perform duties as a committee member. Any member whose removal has been proposed shall be given an opportunity to be heard at the meeting.
- e. A vacancy shall be filled by appointment of the commission chairperson after consultation with the commission members. The Council secretary shall be notified of the changes to the membership list.
- f. Members are to be adequately prepared for membership on the commission by being provided with the opportunities for spiritual growth, appropriate theological formation, and the skills and practical information required for the area of mission.

12.5 Officers. Each commission shall have a chairperson, a vice-chair or chair-elect, and a secretary. Officers are selected annually by and from the commission. Ex-officio members of the commission are ineligible to serve as officers.

- a. The chairperson moderates the meetings of the commission by:
 - 1) Being aware of the tasks and responsibilities of the commission and represents these to the members, the Council, and the parish community.
 - 2) Facilitating the planning and scheduling efforts of the commission.

- 3) Preparing the meeting agenda based on agenda planning at the end of the previous meeting and distributing the agenda at least 3 days prior to the meeting.
- 4) Providing for ongoing formation for commission members.
- 5) Facilitating the meetings by promoting collaboration and arriving at decisions through consensus.
- 6) Monitoring the implementation of all committee decisions or recommendations.
- 7) Coordinating the commission's participation in the budget process and the monitoring of financial reports on the budget for the area of mission.
- 8) Overseeing the recruitment and orientation of new commission members.
- 9) Assisting the next chairperson to understand the commission's task and responsibilities. Transferring all commission materials to the new chairperson.
- 10) Performing duties consistent with the office as the Council or commission may direct.

b. The vice-chairperson or chairperson-elect serves the commission by:

- 1) Conducting meetings in the absence of the chairperson.
- 2) Becoming the chairperson in the case of vacancy and, as chairperson-elect, becoming chairperson with the completion of the chair's term.
- 3) Performing duties consistent as assigned by the chairperson or the commission.

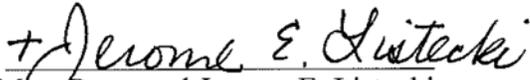

c. The secretary serves the commission by:

- 1) Recording a summary or report of each meeting and submitting it to the Council, commission members, and committees.
- 2) Taking attendance at meetings and noting absences in the summary or report.
- 3) Maintaining the list of all commission members and their terms and reporting any changes to the Council secretary.
- 4) Performing duties consistent with the office as the chairperson or commission may direct.

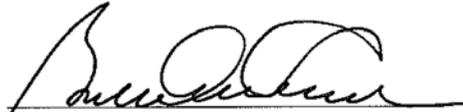

12.6 Meetings. Regular commission meetings are held at such time, place and date as either the Council designates or the commission determines. Each meeting consists of prayer, staff person's remarks, ongoing items, new items, and committee reports.

- a. Special meetings may be called by the chairperson, Council chairperson, pastor or a quorum of the committee to address a single, urgent matter. Notice of such a meeting is given to all committee members within a reasonable time prior to the meeting. No business other than that stated may be conducted at the meeting.
- b. The date, time and location of commission meetings shall be published in the bulletin or website and parishioners are welcome to attend as observers. Parishioners may submit items to the commission or chairperson for consideration on the agenda. The commission chairperson may allow observers to participate in a discussion on such subjects and under such rules as the commission may determine.

12.7 Manner of Decision-Making. The commission's manner of decision-making is communal discernment, which includes gathering of information, prayerful reflection and dialogue which leads to consensus.

Christ King Pastoral Council
Wauwatosa, Wisconsin
Date of Approval by Council: May 18, 2015

MEMBERSHIP

- 3.1 The Council shall have at least 12 and up to 15 members.
- 3.2 The Council shall have the following ex officio members:
- Pastor
 - Associate Pastor
 - Trustees (2)
- 3.3 The Council shall have at least 8 at-large representatives selected from and by the membership of the parish.
- 3.5 The Council shall have at least 2 youth representative selected by the youth members of the parish.

NOMINATION AND SELECTION OF NEW MEMBERS

- 4.3 The Council shall follow the nomination and selection process as outlined:
- a. Education of Parishioners. Describe the process of information/formation of the parish in regard to the purpose of the Councils and the role of parishioners in the nomination and selection of new at-large members.
In April, as part of the nomination process, the Pastoral Council vice-chair shall prepare an announcement describing the role, responsibilities and term limits of council members. The announcement will reference the archdiocesan website for further information on council purposes.
- b. Nomination. Describe the method to identify possible new members of the Council.
In April, the Pastoral Council vice-chair shall prepare a notice for advertisement in the parish bulletin and for announcement after Sunday Mass. The announcement will include information described in section 4.3.a. Parish members submit prospective nominees to the Pastoral Council chair for discussion at the May Pastoral Council meeting.
- c. Notification of Nominees. Describe the procedures for reviewing nominations, notifying potential nominees, and inviting to an orientation.
At the May council meeting, members review the list of nominees and discuss other prospective nominees to be added to the list. Each member is assigned a list of nominees to contact to gauge interest to discern membership and inform them of an orientation and discernment meeting to be hosted by the end of May.

- d. Nominee Orientation. Describe the orientation of nominees.
The Pastoral Council will host an orientation meeting at the end of May to describe the roles and responsibilities of prospective nominees and the discernment process to identify council members. Council members will ask nominees provide feedback on their interest and willingness to serve on the council or in other ministries.
- e. Slate of Nominees. Describe how a final slate of nominees will be prepared for the vacant positions on the Council.
At the same May orientation meeting, after discussions with nominees, the Pastoral Council members will meet separately from the nominees to discern the final slate of nominees to fill open positions. Council members will also identify other areas of parish ministry where nominees can serve if they are not discerned for Pastoral Council.
- f. Facilitation of the Selection Process. Describe the selection process.
After the identification of nominees at the meeting, council members will reconvene with nominees to identify nominees discerned for Pastoral Council. Council members will confirm the nominee's interest in, and commitment to serve on Pastoral Council

The council members will also discuss ministries discerned for nominees not discerned for Pastoral Council. Council members will confirm nominees' interest in, and commitment to serve on a discerned ministry.

4.4 The selection of new members of the Council shall be by discernment.

OFFICERS

5.4 The vice-chair serves the Pastoral Council.

- b. Becoming chair in the event of vacancy.

MEETINGS

COMMITTEE GUIDELINES

- 12.4 Membership. The recommended number of committee members is from 7 to 12 members. In order to promote increased parishioner involvement and to prevent the Committee work from falling only on a small group of dedicated parishioners:
- a. Members serve at least a one year term.
 - b. Members can be appointed for three year terms with a three year extension.
 - c. Appointments shall not exceed six years.
 - d. Members can serve on another committee after the six year's of service, or take a one year sabbatical before rejoining the Committee.
- 12.5 Officers. Each committee shall have a chair, a vice-chair and a secretary.
- a. Officers serve at least a one-year term beginning with the conclusion of the transition meeting.
 - b. The vice-chair will become the chair in the case of vacancy period and becoming the chair with the completion of the chair's term.

AMENDMENTS

- 13.1 The Council Appendix may be amended at any regular or special meeting by consensus or a two-thirds vote of the Council and confirmation by the pastor.

SUBMISSION OF APPENDIX COPY TO THE ARCHDIOCESE

- 14.1 A copy of the appendix should be submitted to the Office for Planning and Councils whenever changes are approved. The copy is placed in the parish or cluster file. The appendix should be reviewed on a regular basis usually in conjunction with the development of a new pastoral plan for the parish or cluster.

ADDENDUM

(a) A Standing Committee's "year" will commence when the annual transition meeting of the Pastoral Council takes place (as discussed in Section 5.1 of these Parish Pastoral Council Norms).

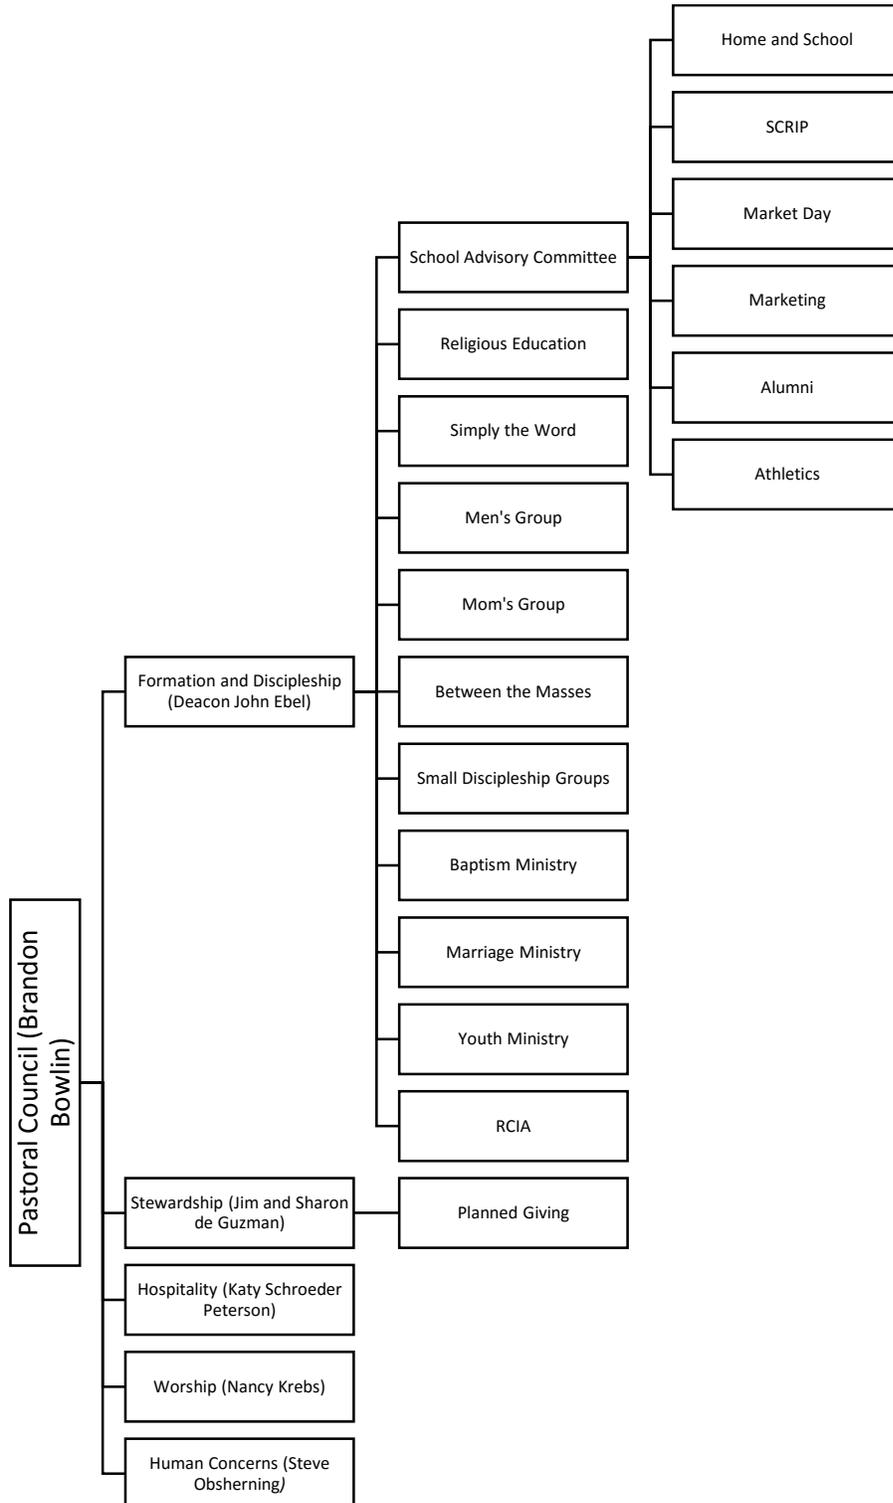

(b) At the beginning of each new Council year, the Council, and all Standing Committees, will establish their own group's goals and objectives for the ensuing year.

- These shall be consistent with the Parish's Mission Statement.
- The primary purpose of creating the goals and objectives is to set priorities for the ensuing year. These will then provide ongoing guidance to Committee/Council members as to where they should be focusing their efforts during that year.
- When developing their goals and objectives, the Standing Committees are encouraged to work closely with their respective Pastoral Council liaisons to ensure they are consistent with those established by, and for, the Pastoral Council.
- At the discretion of the Council and/or each Standing Committee, these may be general or specific, quantitative and/or qualitative. However, each Standing Committee is encouraged to consider establishing a reasonable number (for example, three to five, in total) to ensure they can be accomplished.
- The Pastoral Council shall then review the goals and objectives to ensure they are consistent with the Parish's Mission Statement.

(c) The Council and each Standing Committee shall then carefully consider these goals and objectives as they perform their respective duties during the course of each Council year.

(d) At the conclusion of each Council year, the Council, and all Standing Committees, will formally evaluate these goals and objectives. The primary purpose of these evaluations will be to give Committee/Council members an opportunity to provide feedback which may then be used to determine goals and objectives for the subsequent year.
